

Grey Friars – the adult community college Crucible of Colchester creative talent for 40 years

Ideally situated in the High Street, opposite the bus station, exhibitions of students' work highlighted local artistic talent.

Ceramics was just one branch of the wide arts and crafts curriculum, taught from beginners to City & Guilds and GCE A-level.

Fashion design C&G; creative writing (with publishing), IT applications; mixed-media craft design – all at various levels.

Music of various kinds, including instrumental and choral; all daytime classes supported by high-quality childcare facilities.
All part of an annual curriculum of over 1,000 courses, day, evening, weekend and Summer Schools.

A dedicated staff in roles ranging from teaching through all support services including educational advice and guidance
ADULT EDUCATION – CHANGING PEOPLE'S LIVES FOR THE BETTER IN SO MANY WAYS!